

No where to go but up

M. Shaiman & S. Wittman

8
Life's a bal - loon that tum - bles or ri - ses de - pen - ding on 14
what is in - side. ____ Fill it with hope and play - ful sur - pri - ses, and 21
oh, dea - rie ducks, then you're in for a ride. Look in - side the bal - loon, and if 27
you hear a tune, there's no - where to go but up. Choose the se - cret we 34
know be - fore life makes us grow. There's no - where to go but up.
40
If your sel - ec - tion feels right, well then, dea - rie, hold tight. If you see your re - 46
- flec - tion, your heart will take flight. If you pick the right. string then your 51
heart will take wing, and there's no - where to go but up. ____ 3 59
3
We're zig - ging and zag - ging, our feet ne - ver drag - ging. We 67
might take a ride to the moon! All this bob - bing and wea - ving all comes from be - lie - ving the ma - gic in - side the bal - loon. _____ The past is the past; it lives on as his - t'ry, and that's an im - por - tant

73

79

85

thing. The fu - ture comes fast, each sec - ond a mys't'ry, for no - bo - dy knows what to - mor - row may bring. There's no - where to go but 101

92

up! Well, there's no where to go but up! If your 111

day's up the spout, well, there is - n't a doubt there's no where to go but

117 up. And if you don't be - lieve, just hang on to my sleeve Well, there's no - where to go but up. As you fly o - ver town it gets har - der to frown, and we'll all hit the heights if we ne - ver look down. Let the past take a bow: the for - ev - er is now. And there's no where to go but up! Up! There's no - where to go but up!

123

130

135

141