

Sing and I will hear you

Sing and I will hear you, no land will hold its secrets to 6

mat-ter where you are. A song to light the dark-est night and whi-sper on the wind. The rain will fall, the grass grow green, and guide me from a-far. And I will never be a-lon-life be-gins a-gain. And I will never be a-frai-

8

10

Now I know you're some-where. You're ev-'ry-where to me,
Now I know you're 12

a whi-sper on the breeze, the earth be-neath my feet

14

And when rain falls down, you tell a sto-ry, and I wil

17

hear you, al-ways near you, by the bo-ab tree. The 21

some - where. _ You're ev - 'ry - where_ to me. _____ You're 23

co - lour in _____ the sky, _____ and you're the 24

earth be neath_ my feet. . And when the rain falls down, you tell a

26

sto - ry, and I will hear you, al - ways near you, by the bo - ab

29

tree. Oh, you are.

35

_____ some - where; . you're ev - 'ry where _ to me. _

36

You're the tree.

40