

Streets of London

8

1. Have you seen the old man in the 11

closed down market? Kick - ing up the pa -

14

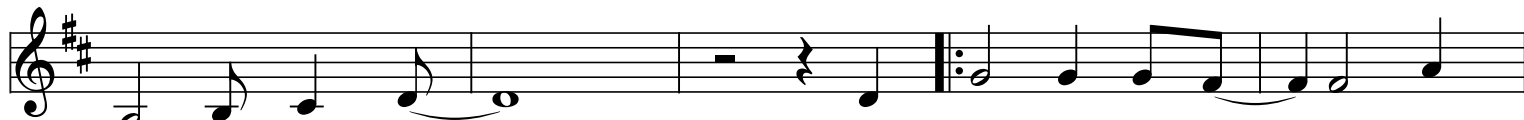

- pers with his worn out shoes. In his eyes you see no pride,

19

hands held loose - ly by his side, Yes - ter day's pa - pers tell - ing

23

yes - ter - day's news. So how can you tell me you're lo - ne - ly? And say for you that the sun don't shine.

28

33

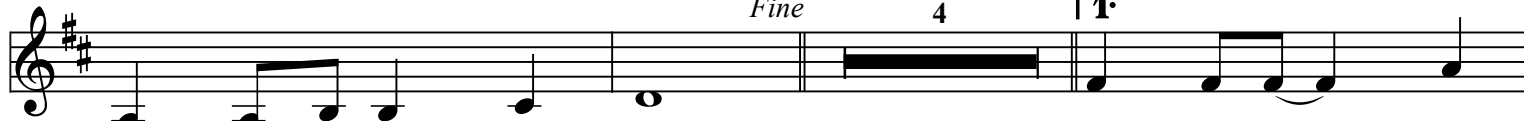

Let me take you by the hand and lead you through the 37

streets of Lon - don, I'll show you some - thing to 40

make you change your mind. Fine 4 1. 2. Have you seen the 47 old gal, who walks the streets of Lon - don? Dirt in her hair and her clothes in rags. She's no time. for talk-ing, she just keeps right on 57

52

walk-ing. Car-ry-ing her home in two car-ri-er bags. —

62

So 3. In the all-night ca-fee, at a quar-ter past e-le-ven,

67

Same old — man sit-ting there on his own.

71

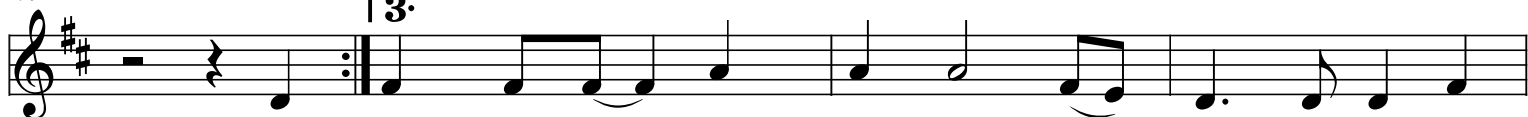

Look-ing — at the world ov-er the rim — of his tea-cup.

75

Each tea lasts an hour, — then he wan-ders home, a-lone. —

79

So 4. Have you seen the old man, out-side the sea-mans mis-sion. Mem'ry fa-ding with the me-dal rib-bons that he 87

83

wears. In our win-ter ci-tty, where the rain cries lit-tle

91

pi-ty: For one more for-got-ten he-ro, and a world that do-esn't care. — So

94
