

Where my heart will take me

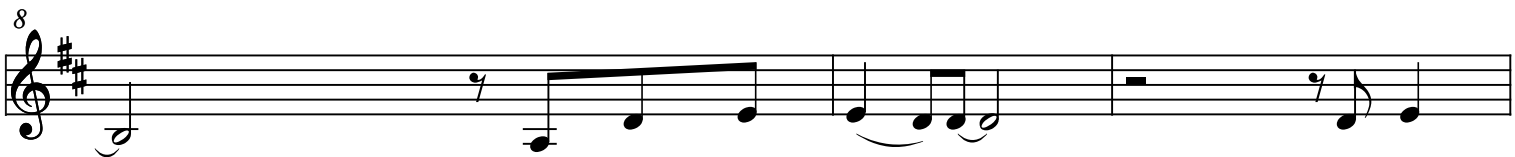

Dianne Warren

1. It's been a long road, —
long night, —

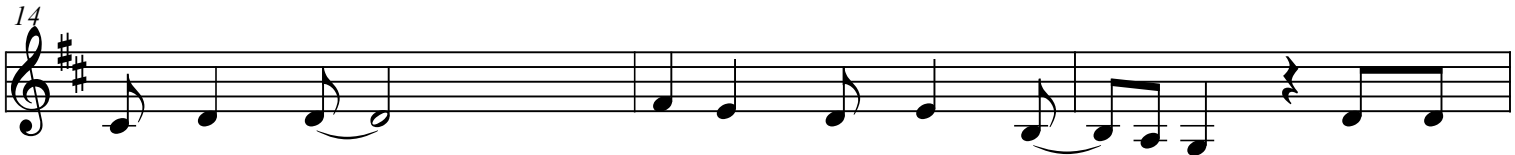

— get - ting from there to here. —
— try - ing to find my way. — — It's been a long _ time_ but my — Been through a dark - ness, — and now, I've time is final - ly near; — And I can feel a change in the final - ly had my day: — And I will see my dream_ come a - wind right now, _ No - thing's in my way_ And they're

- live at last, _ I will touch the sky_

not gon - na hold _ me down _ no more, No they're not gon - na hold _ me down. .
not gon - na change_ my mind.

— 'Cause I've got faith of the heart — I'm go - ing where my heart will take me. I've got faith to be - lieve .

27

I can do an - y thing. I've got strength of the soul, — And no-one's gon·na bend or break me. I can reach an·y star. —

31

35

To coda \oplus 1.

I've got faith, — I've got faith, — Faith of the heart

40

2. It's been a

44

2.

Faith of the heart. — I've known the wind — so cold, I've seen the dar - kest days. — But now the winds — I feel. are 53

49

on - ly winds of change. — I've been through the fire,

57

D S al coda \oplus

I've been through the rain. — But I'll be fine! I've got 61

Coda

faith.. I've got faith of the heart, — I'm going where my heart will take me. I've got strength of the soul, — And no one's gonna bend or break me. I can reach any star. — I've got faith, — I've got 75

65

69

faith, — Faith of the heart. —

80

It's been a long road...