

We need a little Christmas

Haul out the holly,
Put up the tree before my spirit falls again.
Fill up the stocking.
I may be rushing things, but deck the halls again now.

For we need a little Christmas right this very minute,
Candles in the window, carols at the spinet.
Yes, we need a little Christmas right this very minute.
It hasn't snowed a single flurry,
But Santa, dear, we're in a hurry.

Climb down the chimney.
Turn on the brightest string of lights I've ever seen.
Slice up the fruitcake.
It's time we hung some tinsel on that evergreen bough.

For I've grown a little leaner, grown a little colder,
Grown a little sadder, grown a little older.
And I need a little angel sitting on my shoulder.
I need a little Christmas now.

Need a little music, need a little laughter, singing,
Ringing through the rafter.
Need a little snappy, "happy ever..."
Need a little Christmas now!

Haul out the holly, put up the tinsel
Before my spirit falls again.
Fill up the stocking, slice up the fruit cake.
Let's deck the halls with that evergreen bough.

For we need a little Christmas right this very minute,
Candles in the window, carols at the spinet.
Yes, we need a little Christmas right this very minute.
We need a little Christmas,
Need a little Christmas,
Need a little Christmas now,
Christmas now, right now!
